

Darrell Pitts is a First Vice President - Investment Officer with Wells Fargo Advisors. He is a graduate of the University of California at Berkeley, from which he earned a bachelor's degree in economics. Darrell has been a financial advisor and stockbroker for over 35 years.

Darrell holds the following accreditations: (1) Series 7 registration as a general securities registered representative under the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA); (2) Series 63 registration (Uniform Securities Agent State Law); and (3) license as agent for Life and Health Insurance from the State of California; License #0A50690. Darrell has worked with Mark Tomei for many years to support the Alameda County Deferred Compensation Plan, and other investment areas.

Wells Fargo Advisors and its financial advisors provide non-fiduciary services only. They do not provide investment advice [as defined under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 as amended ("ERISA")], have any discretionary authority with respect to the plan, make any investment or other decisions on behalf of the plan, or otherwise take any action that would make them fiduciaries to the plan under ERISA. Wells Fargo Advisors is a trade name used by Wells Fargo Clearing Services, LLC, member SIPC.

